IOM CAPUTO

Nowadays you can still find Tom Caputo knee deep in his life's passion, working in baseball in numerous capacities. Tommy, the Valley Stream native and Hofstra All-American played with the Ducks from 2001-2004 taking over for Carlos Baerga, playing every position but Catcher & Center field. Today as the director of baseball operations for Long Island Ducks Amateur Baseball Organization www.ducksbaseball.org, Caputo oversees the development and instruction of the Long Island Junior Ducks baseball teams and their clinics, teaching the fundamentals of baseball to players aged 8-18. He is currently the baseball coach at Dowling College, NCAA' DII where he is the Infield/Outfield & Hitting Coach.

Also on staff:
Current and Former Long Island Ducks

Hitting Develop proper mechanics &amp; a short compact swing, maintaining a good bat speed	Fielding Develop proper fielding mechanics &amp; "soft hands" along with proper balance
Pitching Develop sound arm action with smooth compact delivery while maintaining velocity	Running Develop proper running form using professional drills that improve explosiveness
